

The Arizona Alliance for Community Health Centers (AACHC) is a national, non-profit organization that provides technical assistance, training, and advocacy for community health centers. AACHC is the national voice for community health centers and works to ensure that all Americans have access to high-quality, affordable care.

Arizona's community health centers are the backbone of our health care system. AACHC is committed to supporting these centers and ensuring they have the resources they need to succeed.

AACHC:

- Provide technical assistance and training to community health centers on a wide range of issues, including accreditation, financial management, and information technology.
- Advocate for community health centers at the state and federal level.
- Conduct research and data analysis to identify trends and needs in the community health center sector.
- Provide leadership and support to the community health center movement.

Dorothy Hastings is the Director of Compliance and Standards at AACHC.

Dorothy Hastings is the Director of Compliance and Standards at AACHC. She has over 20 years of experience in the health care industry, with a focus on regulatory compliance and quality improvement. She is a frequent speaker at industry conferences and has published articles on various topics related to community health centers.

Dorothy Hastings is the Director of Compliance and Standards at AACHC. She has over 20 years of experience in the health care industry, with a focus on regulatory compliance and quality improvement.

Dorothy Hastings, Women's Health and Compliance Standards Manager
700 E. Jefferson St., Suite 100 Phoenix, AZ 85034
602.288.7576, fax: 602.252.3620, dorothyh@aachc.org

For more information, please contact Dorothy Hastings at 602.288.7576.

Dorothy Hastings is the Director of Compliance and Standards at AACHC. She has over 20 years of experience in the health care industry, with a focus on regulatory compliance and quality improvement.

