About Julie Boden Schmidt

Julie Boden Schmidt served as the Associate Vice President, Department of Training and Technical Assistance, for the National Association of Community Health Centers (NACHC), from June 2008 – May 2016. In that role, she directed the operational, governance, and leadership training and technical assistance provided by NACHC.

Julie has over 25 years of experience in managing community-based health care organizations. Prior to joining NACHC, she served as the Executive Director for Family Health Network of Central New York (FHN). In Washington State, Ms. Schmidt was the Director of the Community-Oriented Primary Care Division of the Seattle-King County Department of Public Health and also served as the Executive Director of Puget Sound Neighborhood Health Centers, a federally qualified health center located in Seattle.

She received a Master of Science Degree in Health Education with a focus on Health Planning and Evaluation from the University of Washington.

Currently, she provides TA and training to health centers and Primary Care Associations in the areas of governance, strategic planning, and succession and transition planning. She also has served in Interim CEO capacity.
